Sunny

It was Sports Day yesterday.

First, I played the hula hooping event at eight fifteen.

Then, I played the three legged race with my classmate, Amy at nine o'clock.

Next, I joined the 100m race at half past nine. I won this race because I ran the fastest in the race.

After that, I joined the beanbag throwing event at a quarter past ten.

Finally, I took part in the high jump at a quarter to eleven. It was exciting.

I felt happy because I won the 100m race.
