An accident

One day, Tiffany and Sam went to ride bikes on the road. There was a breeze. They were delighted.

After a while, they were tired. They went to rest under the tree. They enjoyed the beautiful scenery there.

After that, Tiffany went to wash her face. She went to the river and took out a handkerchief. Suddenly, there was a big wave coming over. She fell off into the water.

Finally, Sam got her out of the river. Tiffany did not die. She thanked Sam that he saved her life. Therefore, she asked him out for dinner.
