An accident

One morning, my friend and I rode bicycles in Hong Kong Country Park. After that, we saw a tree, so we sat under it and took a rest. I drank some water and I took my handkerchief to wash my face. It was dirty so I went to the river to wash it. Suddenly, I fell down into the water. My friend helped me to get up and said, 'Don't worry!'.

At last, we rode our bicycles and went back home happily.
